Leila's ex-husband is being released from prison early on good behavior and she found out too late. He was supposed to serve five years, not two, and Leila is unprepared to protect herself and her son. They say hate is a strong word, but

Eileen Parker is certainly no stranger to it. Parker hates her first name, hates her apartment, hates her life. With her sophomore year of college overshadowed by circumstances that she never expected, Parker just wants to keep her head down, pass her classes, and take care of the responsibilities that are threatening to destroy her. And then she meets Ash. Ashton Carter is working to fix the messes that he's made, but he's still struggling with dark memories of a night that changed his life. He's definitely not looking for someone to spend forever with, but when he meets Parker, his life changes once again. It doesn't bother him that Parker adamantly refuses to admit to the chemistry between them, or that she's determined to keep him at arms length. Ash is convinced that Parker is everything he never knew he needed, and he's not about to let her slip away. Fighting against overwhelming insecurities and secrets that feel too big to share, the two must make a choice. They can keep running from their pasts, or they can confront them and face their future together. This is the first book in a series of standalone novels.
