The publication of the King James version of the Bible, translated between 1603 and 1611, coincided with an extraordinary flowering of English literature and is universally acknowledged as the greatest influence on English-language literature in history. Now, world-class literary writers introduce the book of the King James Bible in a series of beautifully designed, small-format volumes. Lord's Day Cry - Robert Harris 2006-02

Greetings-I'm Robert Harris; in writing Lord's Day Cry I've combined doctrinal readiness with the fact of Christ's Bridegroom Return. Suitably, this work makes plain Christ's initial return, which is not an at-once redemption-whether it be the at-once Rapture, or the Second Coming. Actually, both above teachings negate large portions of Scripture. Indeed, if either of these teachings represented the whole truth, then there wouldn't be a need to watch, or a need to prepare. No Tribulation Night? No Midnight Cry? No four watches? No doors? No knocking? No Jewish wedding? No Wedding Feast? No Bridegroom Return with two male witnesses? No first fruits? No Like Manner Return? No partial Summer Harvest? No early and latter rains? No thief like coming in That Night? No place prepared for us? No, we are not bought with a price? In perceiving Christ's first coming, these many Scriptural references all intricately link to a Jewish nighttime wedding. No, these many references are not all just allegoric and meaningless, as many would have us believe. Now Jesus warned, "Take heed to yourselves, lest at anytime your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting (overindulgence), and drunkenness, and the cares of this life, so that day come upon you unawares. . . . Watch you therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things . . . ." (Luke 21:34-36). Here, in praying always, it is the Christian that is to be sober in doctrine, and not to be overtaken with overindulgence and the cares of this life-not the unbeliever (1 Thess. 5:6-8). Sadly, the need to look for the Day of our Redemption, not to mention the need of preparedness for Christ's Bridegroom Return, isn't widely being taught in the Body of Christ. It's time to change that!

The Advent of the End-Time Church - David J. Wiseman 2004-06-02

Since the beginning of the Christian Church, two parallel churches have existed. There is the church organization, so often controlled by man, rather than by God and there is the true spiritual church the remnant that walks in obedience with God regardless of the name over the door. The Advent of The End-Time Church investigates the end-time church and its origins. There is a decaying organizational church but within it is a glorious church without spot or wrinkle that our Lord is coming back to claim. It examines the strengths, weaknesses and practices of the church universal. It is a call for the body of Christ to band together with these strengths in these last days for there is one Lord and one church. The Christian must be vigilant against being seduced and fooled. It is a warning to Gods people how they can be lulled to sleep by stagnant tradition and doctrines, which they believe are time-proven but many of which can be traced to seeds of Gentile paganism. Being grounded in contemporary events, it is a warning to wake up, not only to what is happening in society but also within the church.

Faith and Deeds - Dr. Yunus Ciptawilangga 2020-05-26

As for this fourth book, each topic of the books explains the following matters: Faith and Deeds In the year 2014 to 2019 there are sixteen signs in the sky related to Jesus second coming as mentioned in Acts 2:20. People's response to these celestial signs can be divided into three groups: the group of unbelievers, the group of people who solely believe, and the group who believe and act upon it. 5 Foolish Virgins and 5 Wise Ones This parable deals with the situation at the end of time, the time we live today. Although the ten virgins are children of God, only five entered the Kingdom of Heaven, therefore we need to study this parable more seriously while looking at which type of virgin we are today. God's Promise to Provide The Bible recorded many examples of God provided for His people. God also promise to provide for His children at present time as can be found among others in Matthew 6:25-34. Lord Jesus explained that God requires us to seek first his kingdom and his righteousness. The above requirements are explained in a simple but complete and in-depth manner in this book. Heaviest Temptations We may assume that the temptation Job experienced was very heavy even the toughest one. Actually, the heaviest temptation is the unseen one that had happened to Adam and Eve and had made them fall while the Lord Jesus successfully dealt with it. In the context of the end times, similar temptations Jesus experienced could afflict us and perhaps are afflicting us today. A People Prepared for the Lord Deuteronomy 6:6-9 clearly says that God commanded the Israelites to teach their children spirituality so that they become His people. God really wants our entire family to become God's children, that's why Moses' negligence in educating and preparing his children had a fatal impact against Moses, he was almost killed by the Lord. To Do the Will of the Father The will of the Father is stated among others in John 6:40, "And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day." Are there people who have accepted the Lord Jesus, yet will not enter into heaven? Yes, there are, as described in the parable of The Sower which depicts four types of Christians where only one type will survive. Loving God The Lord Jesus explains in John 14:21 "Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them." Since such a great reward would be received by those who love God, therefore, in Mark 12:30 the Lord Jesus said, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength." Give Glory unto the Lord The Book of Psalms 96:8-9 describes how we should give glory unto the name of the Lord: • To bring an offering and come into His courts. • To worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. • To fear before Him.

The Rapture of the Church is a time when Jesus Christ comes back for his bride after preparing a place for us like he promised in John 14:1-3. This book examines what will take place when that event occurs. Just as there was hidden prophecies about Christ's first coming, should we be surprised there are hidden prophecies related to Jesus Christ's second coming? An example of this in the book of Ruth paints a picture of the return of the Jews coming back into their land shortly before the marriage of Jesus Christ and his church. Another hidden prophecy is a picture of the ten virgins, five wise and five foolish, hidden in the Song of Solomon. This story shows what will happen to those who are ready and those who are not. In the story of Leah and Rachel in Genesis, we see a picture of the church and Israel in the "End Times." All of these hidden prophecies show the love Jesus has for his bride, the church, and his longing to return for her. As you read these pages, I hope you feel the heart beat of God as the nearness of the Rapture draws near. This book examines the questions: - Will all Christians be taken in the Rapture? - How is Jesus' return like the "days of Noah"? - How is Jesus' return like the "days of Lot"? - How is the Rapture a picture of the ancient Jewish wedding customs? - What is the hidden prophetic meaning of the number two? My hope in your reading this book is that on the day the cry is made, "behold the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him" (Matthew 25:6, KJV), you will joyfully light your lamp and go out to meet him.

Many Christians base their understanding of the end times on the popular pretribulation rapture view. They expect that Jesus will rescue them "just-in-time" before the tribulations of the Antichrist. However, few people realize that every single biblical promise of being raptured at that time is conditional on personal spiritual readiness. Eminent Christian leaders such as A.B. Simpson, founder of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, as well as Hudson Taylor, founder of the China Inland Mission, first taught this biblical perspective of a conditional rapture. In their captivating account, the authors take their readers on a fascinating journey through the pages of the Bible, showing how biblical prophecies from Daniel to Revelation point toward not just one but two raptures: a conditional first fruits rapture for the ready "wise virgins" of the church, and a later rapture for "foolish virgin" believers who are spiritually unprepared. Packed with fresh scriptural insights, this book will prepare and equip you for the times ahead! "Worthy to Escape makes for a thoroughly intriguing read! It is rare for Christians to apply the Hebraic traditions regarding marriage to the rapture. That and the book's strong focus on spiritual intimacy set it apart from the majority of end times writings." —Messianic Rabbi Ed Rothman, Hon. M. Div., Hon. Dr. M.S. & J.C., Seed of Abraham Messianic Congregation, St. Louis Park, MN "Everyone should become familiar with the first fruits rapture. I highly recommend this book!" —Rev. J. McCracken, Team Leader, TrueBridge Family of Churches "Any student of eschatology needs to read this book and consider its insights. Bible colleges and seminaries should use it as a reference work and make it required reading." —Pastor T. Porta, Grace Gospel Church, Cambridge, MN

End Times Dawning: Get Ready! - Steve Ashburn 2021-03-13

We are rapidly approaching a period in time that the Bible refers to as the End Times. This book explains the end times drawing from Old Testament prophecies, with an emphasis on the book of Isaiah. This 40-year period will begin with nuclear war in the Middle East, then the rapture, the Russian invasion of North America, the Russian invasion of Israel, the Tribulation, and ends with the glorious Second Coming of Christ. This book systematically and concisely goes through these prophecies and puts them in their proper place in history, current events, and future events, along with a proper timeline of this End-Times period. After reading this book, the Christian will be able to understand: The definition of "End Times" and similar terms in the Bible. The role of various nations such as Egypt, Libya, Sudan, Lebanon, Syria, Gaza and West Bank in conflict with Israel. The role of the United States as a world power and the specific parts it plays in the end times.

Living in Anticipation of the End-Time - Edwin Zackrison 2022-07-19

Not long ago, those who wrote about the "end-time" were preachers—the more fundamentalist, the more extreme by some standards. "The end is coming soon," they said, and cartoons were rampant with guys carrying placards captioned by "The End is Near!" From the time of Christ, whose noncritical predictions included such inspiration for the placards, the religious prophets could not resist emphasis on such topics. Today things are different. The "scientists" and "politicians" make the predictions. "Twelve More Years" is what we hear from the latter. But they don't attack with religious terms. They speak of time in the context of "climate change" and "global warming." They do not agree on how to interpret the evidence, but the religionists also had trouble with agreement. Strange interpretations of biblical texts have now gone the way of so-called science. Various elucidations carry one thing in common: none gain consensus. Some arguments enter discussions by censuring those who disagree with them. Their opponents are not allowed to speak. They must remain silent. They are called nasty names, and unfair methods are used to punish them. They try to stop the incongruous from speaking at all. Living in the "end-time" demonstrates the conflict between good and evil.

Chronicles of the End Times - Mark Davidson 2018-10-05

Mark Davidson, author of Daniel Revisited, has created a unique interpretation of end-time Bible prophecy using the ancient concentric reading method known as chiasmatics. Lost centuries ago, it was rediscovered by seminary scholars in the eighteenth century. This reading method reveals the form of the scripture text via the flow of its words, giving us a heightened sensitivity to the words in the text. When combined with the words' meanings, we receive a greater understanding of prophetic scripture. In Daniel Revisited, Davidson showed us the four signposts—four events prophesied in Daniel 7 and 8 and Revelation 6—to occur in the Middle East prior to the Rapture and Tribulation. Now in Chronicles of the End Times, chiastic reading has been applied to all of Daniel, Revelation, and other books, pulling back the veil further to expand our view from four events to all the main events, from the Middle East to the ends of the earth. A chiastic reading of Daniel, Zechariah 1–6, Matthew 23–25, and Revelation—all shown in ninety illustrations—yields many solid answers to the following questions as well as to many others: — How do Daniel 2 and 7 interact, and why are the kingdoms metals and beasts? — What's the purpose of Daniel's Aramaic chapters, and how do they affect the end times? — Which parts of Daniel 11 are to be fulfilled in ancient times versus end times? — What is the real identity of Mystery Babylon, and how does this help us in the end times? — How do the two scrolls of Revelation give greater understanding of the trumpets and bowls? — What are the Seven Events of the end times, and which one is next? This all may seem incredible for one book, but is nevertheless true. The chiasmic reading of Bible prophecy revolutionizes our view of the end times and how we read Bible end-time prophecy.

Our Final Destiny - Eleanor Stockert 2005-01-26

Our Final Destiny...Revelation Through the Reality of Gods Love is about the final book of the Bible, Revelation of Jesus Christ. Through researching for her first book, Finally Liberated...Through the Reality of Gods Love, Eleanor Stockert experienced the revelation of Gods love. She discovered that the heart of God is to pour out His love on us and through us to help others. It was a revelation that transformed her Christian walk. For over thirty years as a Christian, Stockert had heard people express their fear about the end of the world. Yet, what she discovered in Revelation is that every event to come is enveloped by Gods desire to bring as many people into His kingdom as possible. She found that Gods purpose in the end times is the same as it has been since the beginning of time to reach out to any and all who will receive His love.

UNDERSTANDING THE END TIMES - Dr. Simon Rock Njolomah 2012-01-07

This book is to furnish information that can make sense to both the student of Eschatology and the layman. Thus while the book is useful to the scholar it is also easily understood by the general seeker of truth. Current and unfolding world events are also examined in the light and context of Scripture. The book has both a persuasive and combative approach. There are no ill feelings towards those teachers and authors with whom this author is at variance in certain areas of the subject.

Get Ready - Robert C. Harris 2014-01-01

The way this author understands it, the initial coming of Christ will happen early in the night segment of the Day of the Lord long before it dawns (the seven-year Tribulation period). This is His first coming, which is an Open Door Return in That Night (Matt. 25:10; Rev. 3:10). The second coming of Christ, not the traditional Second Coming, is His Closed Door Return in That Night, sometime after the Great Tribulation begins at mid-trib (Matt. 25:10; Luke 12:36; James 5:9; Rev. 3:20). Both returns will be Jewish Bridegroom returns "at the doors" (Matt. 24:33). His third coming will be the glorious traditional Second Coming with all His saints (1 Thess. 3:13; Jude V. 14), or at the Second Coming dawn when Christ the Daystar is the first light after the seven-year night (2 Pet. 1:19)! Now the question is, are there any Scriptures to back this up? You bet—tons! The Midnight Cry in the Parable of the Ten Virgins (Matt. 25:6) symbolizes the beginning of a new day—namely, the Day of the Lord in That Night—which is the Day of Redemption (Eph. 4:30)—which is the Day of Jesus Christ (Philip. 1:6, 10)—which is the Day of Christ (2 Cor. 2:16; 2 Thess. 2:2-3)—which is the Day of the Lord Jesus (1 Cor. 5:5; 2 Cor. 1:14)—which is the Day of the Lord Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 1:7-8)—which is the Lord's Day (Rev. 1:10)—which is the Day of the Lord which comes as a thief in the night (1 Thess. 5:2; 2 Pet. 3:10). In sum, it is the Day that Christians are to see approaching (Heb. 10:25), lest the Day come unawares (Luke 21:34). Thus, the book name: Get Ready, which addresses the issues of Christianity, while mixing the understanding of end-time events with sound doctrine and biblical preparedness. Simply put, if the entire Church were to go up in an at once pre-trib Rapture (pre-night), or an at once automatic redemption at the traditional Second Coming, why then the command to pray always—to escape all these things that are coming upon the world (Luke 21:34 36)? Moreover, why then the many outright commands to watch (Matt. 24:40 51, 25:13; Mark 13:33 37; Luke 12:36, 38, 40, 17:34; 1 Thess. 5:6; 1 Pet. 4:7; 1 John 2:28; Rev. 3:3, 16:15.)? On this note, if the chapter division is removed between 1st Thessalonians 4 & 5, we don't see a pre-trib Rapture, but a return of Christ in the night segment of the Day of the Lord, which in that passage Paul describes as beginning with birth pangs as does the seven-year Tribulation (also, see Matt. 24:8). Additionally, we immediately beheld the "times and seasons," and in suit we are told to watch (1 Thess. 5:6 8), and this, in the night segment of the Day of the Lord before it dawns (Mark 13:33-37; 2 Pet. 1:19). Biblical watching is to put on faith that works by love (1 Thess. 5:6-8). Indeed, there is a partial Summer Harvest for the prepared in the Body of Christ (Matt. 24:32 33). Speaking of the Summer Harvest, the Early and Latter Rains in the New Testament are symbolic of the Holy Spirit preparing His people for the last days (James 5:7). The Early Rain, as we can verify in any Bible Concordance, was Israel's seed-time rain (November-December). The Latter Rain, which can also be verified in this manner, was Israel's March-April rain in the last preparation for the Spring-Summer Harvest (partial)—"times and seasons." "Times" represents the three returns of Christ, and the "seasons" represent the same—the Summer Harvest, the Fall Harvest and the gleaning of the Second Coming. Obviously, there is more than one time, more than one season. Altogether, these are the "times of restitution" (Acts 3:21). Get Ready details the Lord's initial Bridegroom Return(s), and the how of recognizing the Day of our Redemption when it starts. Moreover, Get Ready addresses the seven letters to the churches, appropriately applying them to today's end-time Church.

The Great Sign—The Key to Unlocking Biblical End Times Prophecy, the Rapture of the Church, and Tribulation Period - James L. Koontz 2014-08-05

The latest craze in Bible prophecy is the four blood moons and the Lords feast days. No doubt these are important biblical signposts. However, these signposts do not provide the all-important context of relating to the timing of any specific biblical event (i.e., rapture of the church, Antichrist signing the seven-year covenant with Israel) and what do the four blood moons mean with regard to being a harbinger or heralding a significant event in Israels history. In this riveting book, James Koontz examines what the great sign means with regard to providing context for the four blood moons and the Lords fall feasts. Since Christs resurrection and ascension, the all important question for His disciples and for many of us now is when is Christ coming back for His bride? Additionally, when will the Antichrist sign the peace covenant with Israel, when will the great tribulation begin, and when will Christs second coming be? These are all very important questions that the great sign helps us understand, being the key to unlocking Bible prophecy in our time.

An Outline of the End Times - PT Nicholson 2016-12-15

An Outline of the End Times is written by a layperson for laypeople. In an attempt to be comprehensive yet concise and thorough, PT Nicholson explores prophetic scripture in relation to the end times. He weighs up counterarguments of key issues that divide Christians regarding the tribulation and the millennium and carefully synthesizes an outline of events without overlooking difficulties. Combined with exhaustive scripture references, he uses charts, tables, maps, sketches, and graphs to explain issues and analyse topics as succinctly as possible. About 25 percent of the Bible is prophecy and, according to a well-known and respected scholar on Bible prophecy, John Walvoord, five hundred of one thousand prophetic events remain unfulfilled. Yet many Christians have only a vague notion of how end-time events will unfold due to inadequate teaching and a shortage of comprehensively researched books on the subject. An Outline of the End Times serves as a reference resource to help meet this need.

The manifest Presence and Power of God seems to be lacking in the Church today. People are longing to sense the anointing of the Spirit of God. Good preaching, powerful programs and excellent fellowship are wonderful, but they are no substitute for the anointing of the Holy Spirit. My prayer is that THE FIVE-FOLD ANOINTING will help you develop a personal, intimate relationship with the Holy Spirit, enabling you to live your life with power and to minister with a greater level of supernatural ability. May this book open your eyes to supernatural blessings and release the power of God in your life. It is the anointing that will enable you to share in the purposes of God. The supernatural results of a life and ministry anointed by the Holy Spirit will astonish you. This can and should be your experience right now. But, be aware, there is a price to pay for all who want to live and minister in the fullness of the Holy Spirit's anointing. The anointing often brings division. The Parable of the Ten Virgins demonstrates this so vividly. There is a clear difference between the two groups of five virgins whom Jesus referred to in the New Testament. Their story is told in Matthew 25. The essential difference was that one group of five had the oil of the anointing, and the other group did not. In numerology, the number five represents division. We see that so clearly today in the context of present-day ministry. Lines of division today are not being drawn along denominational or doctrinal boundaries, but rather along lines of present-day anointing and power. The end-time Church will certainly be distinguished in this way. I believe one group of virgins in this parable represents the true Church of the Anointed One, Jesus Christ. The other represents the counterfeit Church, supporting a false Christ or the antichrist. A thorough study and understanding of the anointing is vital if the 21st century Church is to carry out its commission and effectively take the Gospel of the Kingdom to all the nations.

The Church in End-Time Prophecy - Curtis Schulze 2021-04-12

Church in Prophecy Today, the rapture of the church is one of the most disputed end-time topics in all the scriptures. No other end-time doctrine has divided the church more than this subject of the rapture. We have made this all about timing, rather than his return. Many are preoccupied with and distracted by their own particular prediction. The purpose of this book is not to refute one position in favor of another, but to come against the church's obsession and preoccupation with timing. Our focus should be directed toward his return, and not fixed on timing. This is the testimony of the scriptures! Whether he comes early, or whether he tarries, this does not matter to me. What matters to me is the readiness of the church! We need to be ready now and always if he comes early, but if delayed: we will need to be ready to go through the dark and difficult days ahead. We need to prepare our hearts now for what is coming lest it catch us off guard! We need to build our faith to stand under pressure, and we need to build our trust and confidence in Him now to keep us while in tribulation. We will need to settle the matter in our hearts concerning all those things coming on the earth, to lay our lives down at all cost! We will need to prepare our children and loved ones for the day ahead if the Lord tarry. If the Lord did return today, most would not be ready to evacuate! If he were to delay his coming, most are unprepared for the dark and difficult days ahead. I am afraid for the church! I am afraid many will fall away if the rapture does not occur as expected. I am afraid many are taking this too lightly, thinking they are guaranteed a seat on the rapture express but will be left behind because of complacency and indifference toward Christ and the gospel. Either way you look at it, the church is neither ready to leave, nor ready to go through!

Revelation - 1999-01-01

The final book of the Bible, Revelation prophesies the ultimate judgement of mankind in a series of allegorical visions, grisly images and numerological predictions. According to these, empires will fall, the "Beast" will be destroyed and Christ will rule a new Jerusalem. With an introduction by Will Self.

The Parable of the Ten Virgins - Thomas Shepard 2014-03

Thomas Shepard (1605-1649) was a New England Puritan minister. Forbidden to preach in England, he emigrated to Massachusetts in 1635. The most eloquent measure of his classic The Parable of the Ten Virgins is that there is a scarcely a page in The Religious Affections where Jonathan Edwards does not reference Shepard's work.

End Times: Fact or Fiction - Robert E. Vick Sr. 2013-05

This book begins with telling the reader of how and why the scriptures are true. I truly believe everyone should read this book because it tells the true story of the end of time as written in the Bible. It is a story for both believers and nonbelievers; it goes into great detail about God's hatred for sin, such as those listed in the Ten Commandments: lying, stealing, blasphemy, etc., and his punishment for it. This is a story that will help you to understand God's will for you to continue to be faithful to him, and for the nonbelievers, this book is written to help and persuade you to become a believer before it is too late. This book explains how to prepare for the last days; it explains to you all the things that God has in store for the entire world. Also, it explains what heaven and hell were created for; it tells you where heaven and hell are located. It explains each event that will take place and is set up in the order in which they will occur with the verses from the Bible's scriptures to back them up. The verses are taken from the Bible as they really are. I did not add or delete any words to make them more suitable. The next event to take place is the Rapture. This story goes into great detail about this event; it explains who Satan and the Antichrist really are. It also tells the readers why God must destroy the entire world and the universe with fire; it speaks of the stars melting and falling from the skies. It will help the readers to understand why there will be a new heaven and earth.

Is God Still Coming? - Shion Oconnor 2022-07-19

There are worldwide concerns that the planet is on the brink of extinction, but just how close are we to the end? Is there a prophetic significance of Brexit for example? What about climate change? Since the earth was created thousands of years ago, why was there no concern of a global extinction before now? What is it about now, that worries climatologists and meteorologists, and for that matter, epidemiologists, and virologists? Is there a prophetic significance in the timing of the Covid19 pandemic, or the rise in global social unrests like BLM? Did the Bible prophets foresee the rise of Silicon Valley, the explosion of Artificial Intelligence or the break-neck speed in information technology? If so, what is their prophetic utility in decoding the timetable for the end? How does the combination of science and eschatology help us to appreciate our proximity to the brink? This shocking revelation answers the question, 'Is God Still Coming?'

Walking with the King - Eleanor Stockert 2016-04-15

Walking with the King through the Reality of God's Love is a book for anyone desiring a deeper, more intimate relationship with their Father God. It is a book that points to His limitless love for His children and His never-ending desire to see them blessed and protected. It encourages believers to trust in the Father's Love to provide for every need in their lives. It is also a book that warns believers against having a superficial relationship with their Heavenly Father claiming to know and love Him, but treating Him and His Word as unimportant through benign neglect. In these last days, which are becoming increasingly more dangerous, the only true place of safety and security is found in the presence of God the Father. Walking with the King through the Reality of God's Love is Eleanor Stockert's third book dealing with the reality of God's Love. As in the first two books, Finally Liberated through the Reality of God's Love and Our Final Destiny Revelation Through the Reality of God's Love, Stockert leads the reader to a deeper level of understanding of God's Love as seen through the heart of a good Father. Walking with the King enables believers to enjoy the abundant life Jesus died to give them.

Midnight's Cry - Robert C. Harris 2007-10

The night, or the possibility of Christ returning, begins when the night of the seven year Tribulation begins. To deny this, is to deny the earlier watches of the night (Mark 13:33-37), and the night itself the Day of the Lord. In this vein, the Day of the Lord is pictured as nighttime (1 Thess. 5:2), that is, before it dawns (2 Pet. 1:19). If the chapter division between 1 Thessalonians 4 & 5 is taken out, which doesn't exist in the original manuscripts, we find that it is not a pre-night Rapture that we are to be ready for, but a coming of the Lord as a thief in the night, wherein we are commanded to watch (1 Thess. 5:6-8) and keep our garments (Rev. 16:15). Ironically, the seven year Tribulation and the Day of the Lord both begin with birth pangs (Matt.

24:8; 1 Thess. 5:3) they are one in the same! Now Christians are told to earnestly expect the Day of the Lord in 2 Pet. 3:12 (The word hastening is really to earnestly expect in the Greek.). In suit, since Christians are still here once the Day begins the night (Christ also comes as a thief in the night: in Rev. 16:15), we are told to provoke one another to love and good works, even more so as we see the Day approaching (Heb. 10:24-25). Moreover, it is impossible for the literal salvation to take place before the Day of Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 5:5; Philip. 1:6, 10; 2 Thess. 2:2-3), being before the Day of our Redemption (Eph. 4:30). The pre-trib Rapture teaches that Christ's initial coming will happen before the Day of the Lord; before the night (imminently), but conversely, the Word tells us, "Let no man deceive you by any means, for that Day shall not come (speaking of the Day of Christ) until there is a falling away and the man of sin is revealed. The point is, That Day will begin the beginning of the Tribulation; and again, both the Day of the Lord and the Tribulation begin the night, just as we find in Scripture (1 Thess. 5:1-3). Thus the Trump of God in 1 Thessalonians 4:16 is not an anytime trump before the night, but the Last Trump of the Last Day (John 6:40), being the traditional Second Coming. Even the idea of the Lord returning with a shout, and the Trump of God, and the voice of Michael the Archangel clearly also testify of this, and these represent a battle cry. The irony is, that there is no battle at Christ's initial appearance (1 John 3:2), wherein again, we are COMMANDED to watch (1 Thess. 5:6-8) for His appearing and keep our garments (Rev. 16:15). The Day of the Lord, wherein Christ initially returns, again, has the attributes of nighttime (Luke 17:34; Mark 13:35; 1 Thess. 5:2; 2 Pet. 3:10-14; Rev. 2:1, 16:15), that is, before it dawns (2 Pet. 1:19). Thus Christ is the Bright and Morning Star, the sign of the Son of man at the traditional Second Coming or the first light after the NIGHT the dawning of the That Day (2 Pet. 1:19) when the God man returns at the Second Coming with all of His saints (1 Thess. 3:13, 4:14; Jude 14). Indeed, it is That Day, that is, its prior night segment that we are to look for (Heb. 10:24-25), that will come upon the world and much of the Church as a thief in the night (Luke 21:36; 1 Thess. 5:3). Indeed, it is That Day, as Peter Greek-wise tells us, to earnestly expect (1 Pet. 3:12). Indeed, it is That Day when literal redemption will take place (1 Cor. 5:5). Indeed, it is the Day of Christ (2 Thess. 2:3), being the Day of Jesus Christ (Philip. 1:6, 10) being the Day of our Redemption (Eph. 4:30)! Speaking of the Day of the Lord, it begins when there is a Great Apostasy, and that the Man of sin is revealed to the Body of Christ (2 Thess. 2:2-3), that is, when the Antichrist confirms (Hebrew: insolently prevails) the Old Covenant and/or the rebuilding of the Jewish Temple in a peace movement (Such will cause great

End Time Scenario - Moses L.H. Tay 2015-08-13

Laodicea, Her Authority, Organization, and Destiny - Vernon C. Sparks 2012-03-18

—Protestant Reformation's Final Movement / God's End Time Church— In Revelation 3:14-21, God's end time church is named Laodicea. In those verses, His remnant people are described as having the tendency to evaluate their spiritual condition, and work, at a much higher quality than is Christ's judgment of it. He states that the Laodicean church, though entrusted with the knowledge of His last warning messages for the world are spiritually "wretched," "miserable," "poor," "blind," and "naked." (verse 17). Matthew 25:1-13 is the parable of the ten virgins waiting to attend a wedding feast. In this account Jesus is also describing His remnant people. Christ's story says that "while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept." (verse 5). This present volume is a Bible and Spirit of Prophecy study regarding the form of, and reasons why, Christ brought His end time people into a highly organized movement. It also describes how Christ's ordained methods of operating His organization tend to be abused, and even ignored. It explains how His people tend to operate Christ's publishing, educational, health, and even ministerial work more in harmony with the wisdom and wishes of man and the world than with the clear directives of the Lord whom we claim to be serving. But, all is not gloom and doom. There is counsel as to how to revive from the Laodicean condition. This present volume goes into detail as to what Christ will do to awaken His people. It presents the inspired explanations as to how His remnant will be "shaken" into the condition necessary for Him to be able to pour out upon them the Latter Rain to empower and equip them to give the Loud Cry and thus finish His work upon this earth. Entire chapters are dedicated to the divine instructions regarding the importance of not running ahead of, but cooperating with, Christ in these important dealings with His people.
